Death Near Mendon.

From the constitution we gather the following:

John McKeever, one of the old and prominent citizens of the community was born in Ireland in 1834 and at an early age moved to this country settling in Pennsylvania with his parents. In 1855 he was united in marriage with Rachel McIntosh and six children came to the union, three of whom, Mrs. Mary J. Hannon of Pawnee, Neb. John who lives in Oregon and Ben who was with his father at his death May 22.

In 1856 John McKeever located at Laclede but after a year came to the farm near Mendon where he has resided since. Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church at Rothville, Rev. Enjart conducting the ceremonies and interment in the Rothville cemetery.

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza.

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? In your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and herbs, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients is a temperance alternative and tonic. It is good for the lungs and for coughs, for Oregon grape root, blood root, and root, Queen's root, all skillfully blended in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbs extract the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are best for catarrh. By improving the blood they aid in throwing off all attacks of influenza.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a cold disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Saxe's Catarrh Remedy. Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Saxe, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sarah Ann Powell

Sarah Ann Powell was born near Lebanon, Boone county, Indiana, April 13 1840. She was married to William DeWeese, March 14, 1857. To this union seven children were born, four sons and three daughters. She moved with her family to Chariton county Mo. and settled on a farm near Indian Grove in the autumn of 1871, where she lived until the death of her husband a few years ago since which time she has lived a part of the time with her son, Cornelius, at Huntsville, where she died May 22, aged 79 years, 1 month and 10 days.

She was converted and united with the Christian church at Old Union, near Jamestown, Indiana in January, 1863. She was a charter member of the Indian Grove Christian church and gave it her hearty support from the time of its organization in 1873 to the day of her death.

Her remains were brought to Indian Grove Sunday, May 25th, where funeral services were held at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Poe, pastor of the Methodist church of Huntsville, after which all that was mortal of Aunt Sarah DeWeese was tenderly laid to rest beside her husband to await the resurrection of the just.

A large congregation of people was present to bear witness to the high esteem in which she was held where she had lived for so many years.

She leaves to mourn their loss three sons and two daughters (one son and one daughter having gone on before), two brothers, one half-brother, three half-sisters, 23 grand children and 37 great grandchildren.

The pains of death are passed.

Labor and sorrow cease;

And life's long warfare closed at last,

Her soul is found in peace.

Carter DeWeese.

The Root of Lynching

The lynching of a confessed murderer at Lamar brings us to the shocking realization that mob spirit is still alive in our own state. Why is it alive? Why, in a state which has abolished capital punishment as a penalty, will a mob of citizens take the life of a human being? Expressing his horror at the lynching, Gov. Gardner said, "the dignity of the law must be upheld." Therein lies the answer to the two questions. The execution of the sentence. Revival of capital punishment in Missouri is not necessary to put an end to lynching and mob violence. But revival of the law is necessary. The law will be respected when it earns respect. The penal system must be purified, must be restored to a safe potency. It is up to Gov. Gardner and his prison board to restore the dignity of the law by giving real value to the sentences of courts and juries.
